TRIODION FOR THE FOREFEAST OF THEOPHANY

First Ode. Second Tone
Heirmos

The im - pass - a - ble and bois-t'rous sea of toss - ing waves, the Lord by His di - vine com-mand once dried up might - i - ly;

and He guid - ed through its midst the tribes of the Is - ra - el - ites to pass there-through on foot. To Him let us all sing; in glo - ry is

He glo - ri - fied.

D C B D

Our Cre - a - tor's love and con - de - scen - sion past all speech, which from the Vir - gin first shone forth, filled all the world with light;

C Un.

D C D C

and a - gain, our Sav - iour Christ Him - self is now come to per - form an - oth - er my - ster - y in Jor - dan's stream to work the strange re - birth of mor - tal men.

D C

D

The Fore - run - ner John, the Voice of God the Word, doth now come to the Jor - dan, min - i - st'ring un - to an awe - some deed;

rich in true Di vi ni ty, Christ com eth to make pau - pered Ad - am to be rich a - gain through God the Spir - it's grace, by the gift of Bap - ti - sm.

Eighth Ode

Heirmos

D C D

Both soul and bo - dy free from stain of the guilt - less Child - ren quaked,

C B C D

trem - bling with ter - ror; yet the un - re - lent - ing fire fed with end - less

C D

fu - el drew back and re - tired; and when the ev - er - liv - ing

C D C

flame had gone out, an ev - er - last - ing song of praise was sent on high: O all ye works, praise ye the

D

C D

Lord and ex - tol Him, and su - preme - ly ex - alt Him

C D

un - to all the a - ges.

D C D
 I shall know you to be in truth Mine e - lect ves - sels, if My C B C D
 gift be signed in you, a - blaze with three - fold light; Christ the Word thus
C D
 spake un - to them that a - bide deep in in - do - lence, bur - dened
C D C
 with lan - guour and sloth, as He was go - ing un - to D sav - ing Bap - ti - sm; for through its means, I come to
C D
 give you a new way lead - ing to sal - va - tion and
C D
 life en - downed with free - dom.

D C D

That deed ac-com-plished in Thee now is clean con-tra-ry to the

C B C D

na-tu-ral or-der; the less-er must be blessed by the great-er, ev-en as all will a-gree. Hence, I am a-fraid to touch

C D

C D C

Thy head with my hand; for it be-hoov-eth not the grass to near the Fire, the Fore-run-ner cried to the

D

C D

Lord and Re-deem-er; do Thou rath-er sanc-ti-fy me, which am Thy ser-vant.

C D

Another Diodion

Same Tone. Heirmos

The stern de - cree of the ty - rant king did not per - suade the three most right - eous Child - ren, who, be - ing cast in the fur - nace, con - fessed God with thanks and sang the hymn:
Bless the Lord and ex - alt Him, ye works of the Lord our God.

D Un. D
Un. D
C D
C
D

D Un. D

While shak - ing off from our low - ly souls the sleep of sloth,

Un. D

with watch - ful heart and spir - it come let us cry out to Him that doth come to cleanse souls with - in the streams:

C D

C

Bless the Lord and ex - alt Him, ye works of

D

the Lord our God.

D Un. D
Let right - eous deeds now suf - fice in us, with souls made rich

Un. D
in loft - y con - tem - pla - tion, that shin - ing bright - ly

C D
in both, we may cry un - to Him Who cleans - eth all:

C
Bless the Lord and ex - alt Him, ye works of

D
the Lord our God.

D Un. D

With word and deed, let us all en-hance our tal - ent with a bless - ed two - fold la - bour; as faith - ful ser - vants

Un. D

C D

in faith let us bring to the Mast - er what He gave,

C

Who doth come to be bap - tized to fa - shion

D

our souls a - new.

Ninth Ode

Heimros

D Un. D
Thou hast mag - ni - fied, O Christ, Thy pure Mo - ther,

C D
the The - o - to - kos; from whom, O Mak - er of all,

Un. D
Thou didst don a bo - dy with hu - man pas - sions,

C
which be - came the ran - som de - liv' - ring us from all our

D er - rors. As we call Thy Mo - ther blest, all we

C D
ge - ner - a - tions mag - ni - fy Thy Name.

D Un. D

Let us cast off from our - selves all de - file - ment

C D

and stain of pas - sion, and right - ly take up a wise

Un. D

un - der - stand - ing of most di - vine Bap - ti - sm;

C

for our Mak - er com - eth to grant a strange and won - drous cleans - ing, be - ing bap - tized in the streams, and to show to all a new and sav - ing change.

D

C D

Spurn - ing not a ser - vant's form, Christ God hum - bled

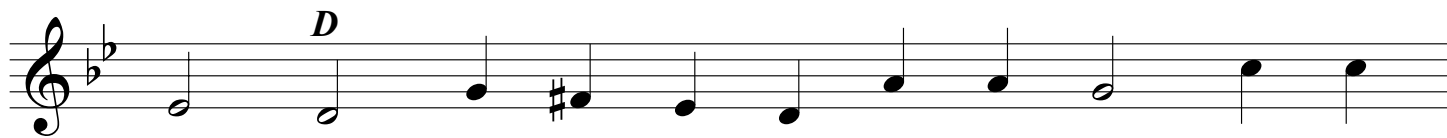

Him - self by free choice; and as we look un - to Him, let us be ex - alt - ed in heart and spir - it, hum - bling now our - selves un - der - neath His might - y hand, ye faith - ful, that with pure and blame - less deeds, we may hon - our Him now bap - tized for our sakes.

D Un. D C
O thou who held - est in thy womb God, Whom no - thing

D
can con - tain, and didst bring forth Joy for the world en - tire, we ex - tol thee, O thou all -

C

D
ho - ly Vir - gin.

D Un. D C
Come, as we cast off from our - selves all the griev - ous

D
filth of sin, let us, cleansed, now look on

C
Him cleans - ing all in di - vine streams, ev - en Je - sus our Mast - er.

D

Cleansed with the streams of fer - vent tears, let us draw nigh un - to Christ, as he com - eth will - ing - ly en - ter - ing Riv - er Jor - dan in the flesh to be bap - tized.

At Thy Na - ti - vi - ty, O Christ, we kept feast with

Ma - gi Kings and with shep - herds; Lord, now ac - cept us all, that re - vere Thee, Who dost come to be bap - tized.
